

How to Serve the World

Serving Non-English Speaking People in the U.S. - 7. 1

Spanish is, by far, the most supported non-English language in public libraries.

Smaller communities are serving a larger propor

Bridging the Gap Family to Family: Athenian-Mexican Cultural Exchange and Learning

By Christina M. Gifford, 2007

As a teacher, I have always been interested in the ways that culture and language shape our learning experiences. I have always been curious about the ways that our students bring their own cultural and linguistic backgrounds to the classroom and how we can best support them in their learning.
