

I.16 Notice of Concern

The Notice of Concern is formal communication with and notification to an accredited program and its institution that the COA has serious concerns about the program's ability to comply with the Standards. This process provides the program the opportunity both written and in person

Accreditation Process, Policies, and Procedures fourth edition review. COA will send a letter to the Program Head and institutional representatives explaining its actions.