LIRT News is a journal of the American Library Association (ALA) that provides information and resources for librarians and library staff. The journal is published quarterly and covers a wide range of topics related to library practice, including technology, collection development, and professional development. The journal is available in both print and digital formats. The digital version is available online through the ALA website. The print version is available through subscription. The journal is a valuable resource for librarians and library staff who are interested in staying current in their field. The journal is also a great way to share your own experiences and ideas with other librarians and library staff. The journal is a must-read for anyone who works in libraries.

All material in the LIRT News is the property of the American Library Association. All rights reserved.
